

winereviewonline.com

May 15, 2007

2005 Bouchaine Carneros Pinot Noir

90 points!

“The cool Carneros region spans the southern ends of the Napa and Sonoma Valleys and is well suited for Pinot Noir, a variety that thrives in cooler climes. Bouchaine’s is a delightful combination of red fruit—strawberry, raspberry-like flavors—with just enough earthiness to keep it interesting.”

—Michael Apstein